Dear Mr. Dulles:

Field Marshal The Viscount Alexander of Tunis, Governor General of Canada, is to be the British speaker at the Annual Dinner of the English-Speaking Union to be given at the Waldorf-Astoria on Wednesday evening, November 28th, at seven forty-five o'clock. The American speaker will be The Honorable Paul G. Hoffman, Director of the Ford Foundation; The Honorable Lewis W. Douglas will preside.

We will be honored if you will be our guest on the dais at the dinner. A formal invitation will be extended to you and Mrs. Dulles later, but I am aware of the many commitments you have and am writing now in the hope that you will reserve November 28th.

Sincerely yours,

William V. Griffin
